

REACH Mentoring will be increasing their presence online through Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/ReachMentoringNI>) to support all of our students by providing a positive narrative and practical tips to improving holistic well-being in a time that is filled with so much fear.

This online presence also provides an opportunity for parents or students who may need additional support to get in touch.